On Leave of Absence

This year we have missed the presence of our assistant principal, Miss Beatrice Rentschler. Many students remember her words of guidance in both academic and personal problems.

Miss Rentschler, who had been at Buchtel for twenty-three years, retired in 1953.

Many graduates of Buchtel have long remembered Miss Emma Stuckey. They, as we, feel that an excellent background has been gained from her training in the fields of History and German.

Miss Stuckey retired in 1953 after twenty-three years of service.

In the Office

Buchtel's busy office secretaries, Catherine Mohn and Grace Weber, keep the office running smoothly and efficiently. Mrs. Mohn worked formerly at King School and Miss Weber at Grace School.

In the Library

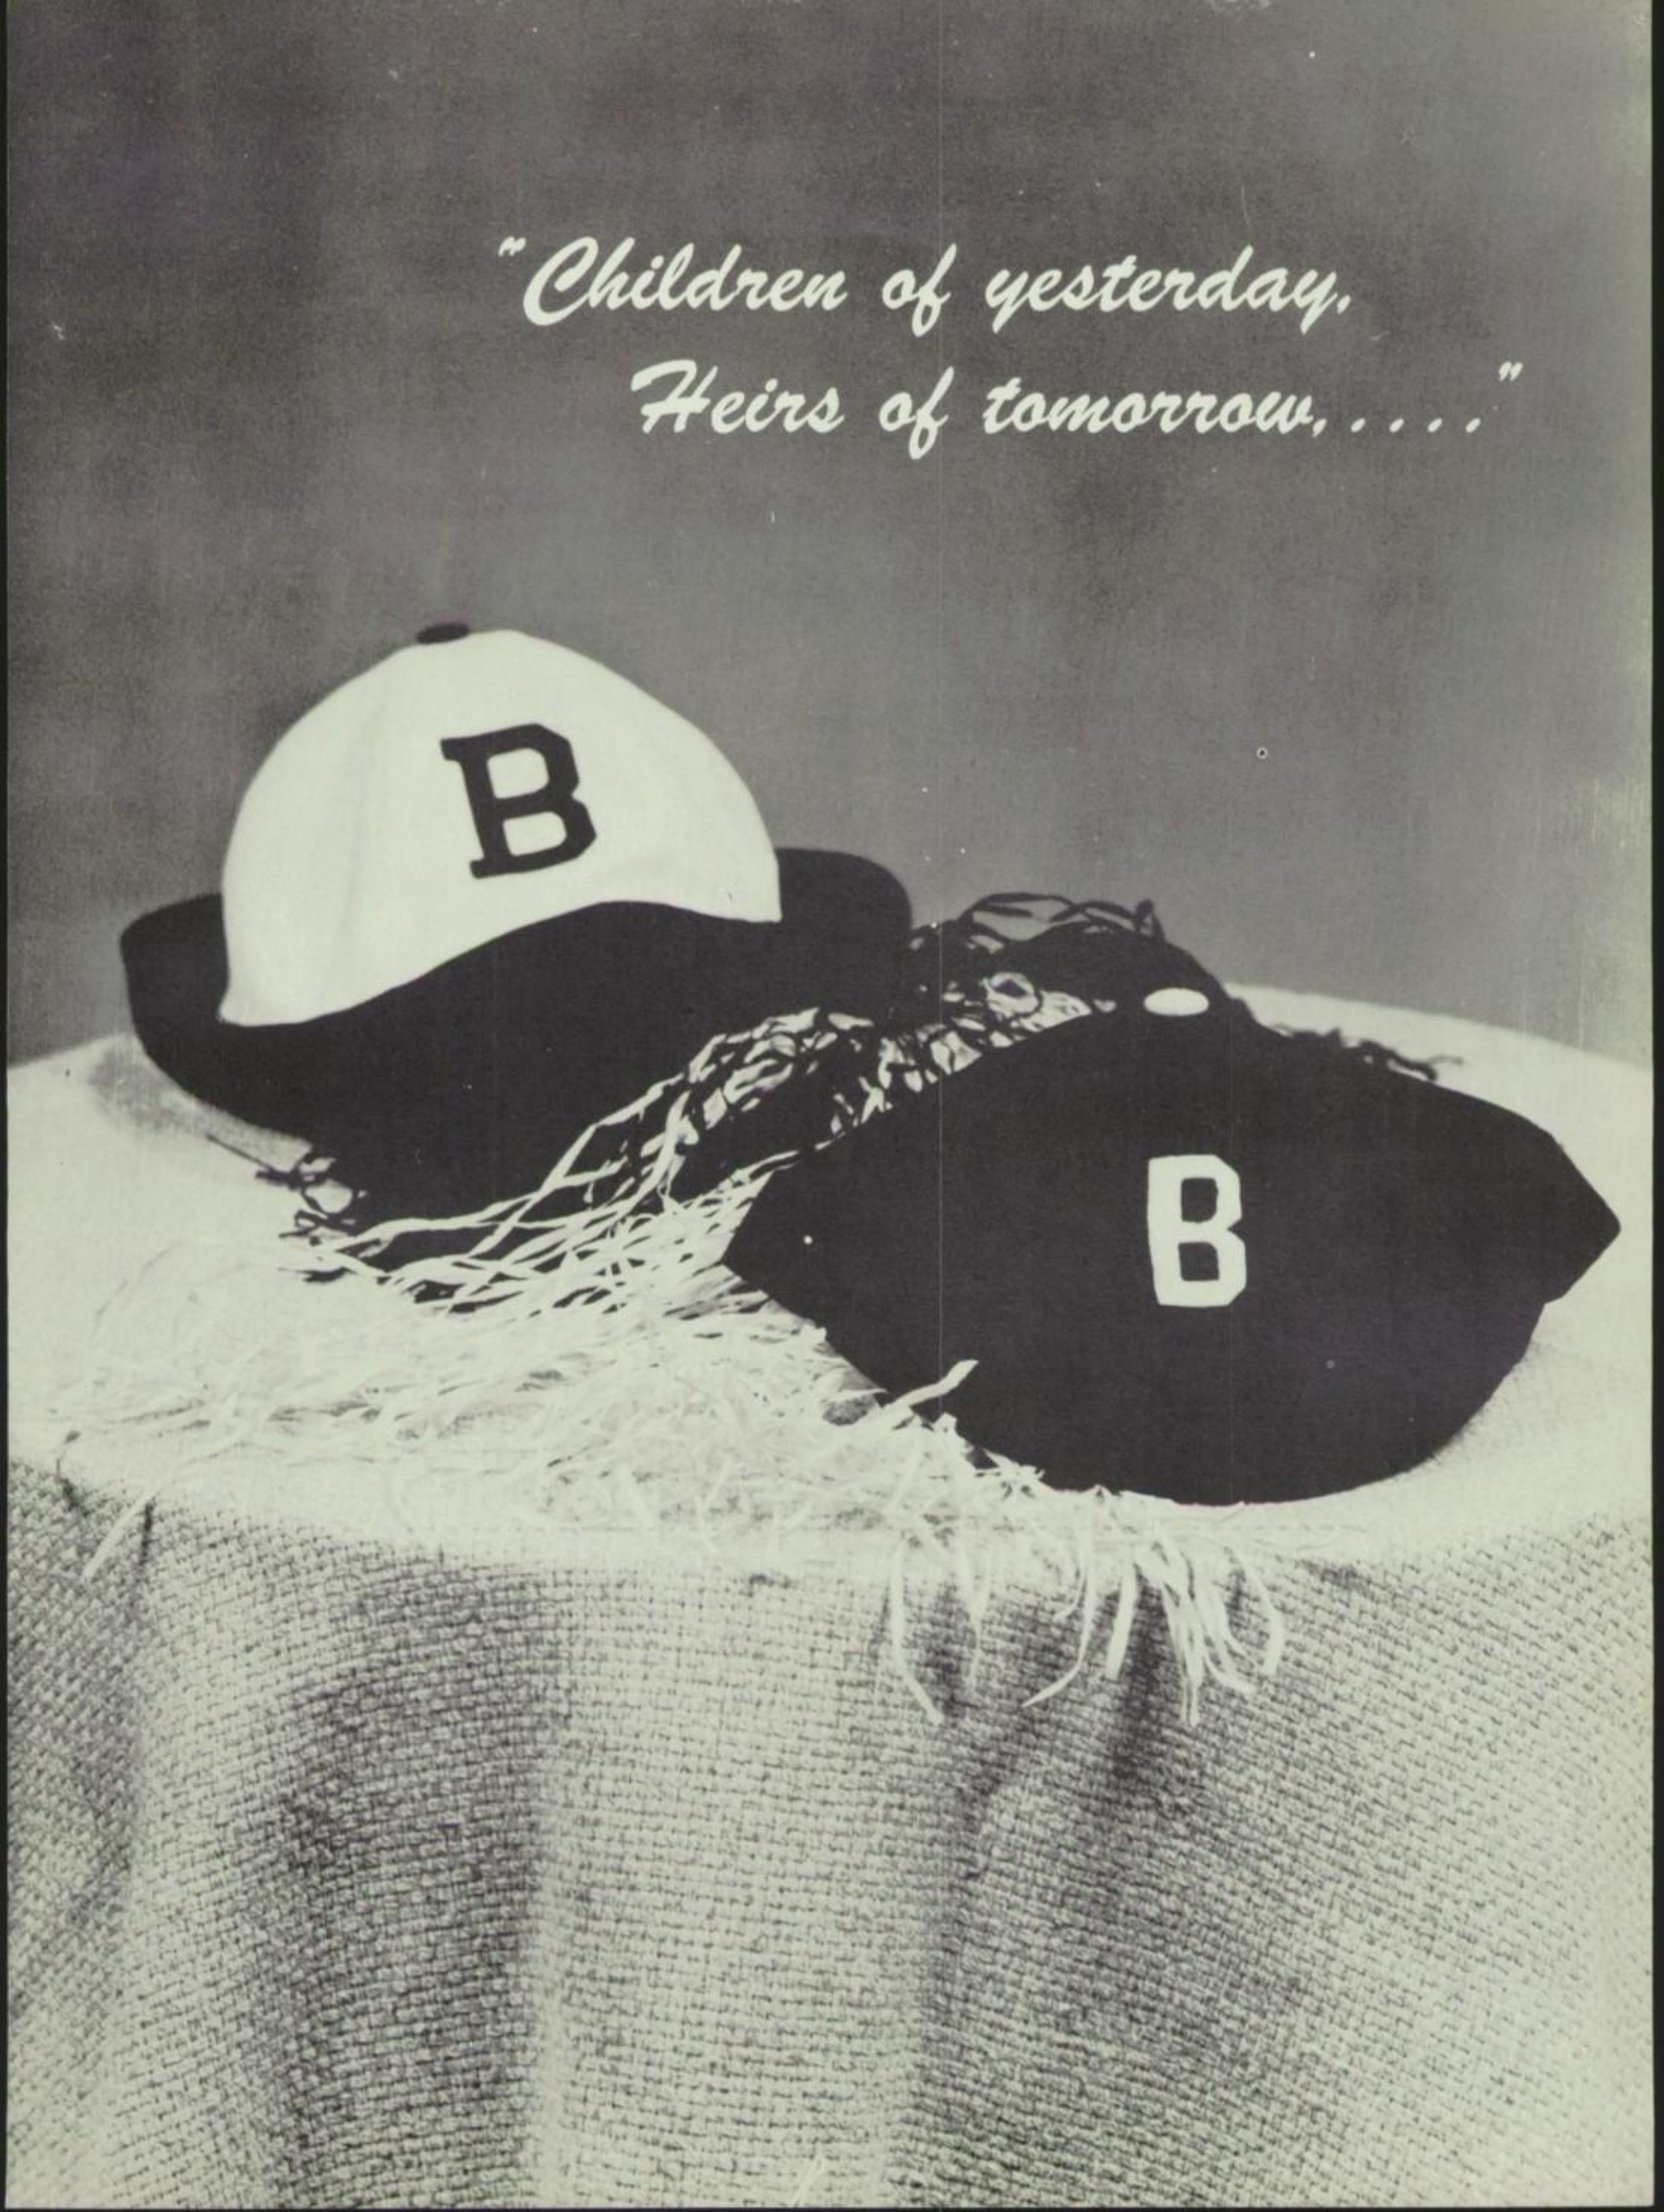
Miss Sexauer arranges magazines for student panel discussions, one of her daily tasks as school librarian. Her advice and suggestions in choosing reading material is helpful in preparation for debate, term papers and book reports.

Representing a maintenance crew that keeps the floors waxed, windows cleaned and tables dusted is Mr. George Pryor, head of the custodial staff.

In the Kitchen

Preparing lunch in the cafeteria for the majority of Buchtel's students is our efficient and hard working kitchen staff. Mixing salads we see Mrs. Betty Harrison, Mrs. Gladys Kuhn, Mrs. Bertha Nix, Mrs. Minnie Wood, and Mrs. Marie Zable. Mrs. Ruth Kimble is not pictured.

"Children of yesterday,
Heirs of tomorrow,....."



Honors

Selected by their classmates as the boy and girl exemplifying the highest qualities of American youth are the winners of the Manhood and Womanhood Cups.

The National Honor Society Award goes to the student who received the highest score in an objective rating of candidates by the school faculty.

Class Prophecy

Here is my evening paper, Akron Beacon Journal, June 9, 1974. Steve Subrin is going to run for Mayor on the Democratic ticket. Bill Lewis, another Democratic favorite, will be running for Councilman-at-Large against Walt Garner. We wish them both good luck.

Several well known people around the city will be interviewed tonight on the local television program entited "Akron Moves Ahead." Its purpose is to recognize prominent Akron people who have been influential in civic improvements. Those appearing on the show will be Richard Drews and James Horn, well known Akron minisiters; Captain William Bosshard, head of our local traffic court; Miss Sandra Newman, social case worker for the Children's Home; and John Naum, prominent civic leader. I'll have to be sure to watch that program.

An item worth noting — Fred Noall has just set a new world's speed record, coast to coast in 35⅜ minutes in his jet plane. Why, it was just last week that Bob Fidelholtz broke the stock car record by driving 272.7 m.p.h. in an auto he built himself.

Judy Sellers, popular author of short stories, has just published a new book, Dishes, Diapers and Politics, which is illustrated by Nancy Green, world famous artist.

Here is an item of interest. Thomas Woodward Smith, president of the American Chemical Society, and Nancy Jean Sparhawk, professor of advanced chemistry at Cornell, have jointly discovered why the atom bomb ticks. Mr. Reeves could never explain this amazing phenomena to them, so they decided to find out for themselves.

Two former Buchtel classmates of mine, Katsunari Toyoda and Hideo Ogashimia, have just returned to Japan after lecturing at Johns Hopkins and consulting at Mayo Clinic. It was a pleasure seeing them again.

That famous civil engineer, Joe Di Mascio, has been hired by the City Council to formulate plans for a new network of roads to accommodate the throngs expected for the Buchtel reunion.

Here is an article about Nancy Wyle. After fifteen years as a nurse at City Hospital, she has been appointed superintendent of nurses. We recall the day when her first patient, Joe LaCamera, was not expected to withstand her tender care. Nancy Saum is to be her assistant.

Dede Armitage, a graduate of Miss Beda's School of Music and now director of music at Buchtel High School, is going to talk to the Akron Music Teachers tonight. Her subject is "Problems of Music Teachers." Dede knows all about this because she used to be quite a problem herself.

John Stouffer, Akron architect, has been assigned the task of planning the addition of a country club to Buchtel High School. Gee, in my day we couldn't use a saloon in Class Day!

Turning to the theater page I see where that popular singing group, "The Eight Notes," has just returned from a successful six months' play at the London Paladium. They will soon appear at the Yankee Inn, now under the management of Chet Eldridge and Ted Treece.

Mel Kantrovitz, the jazz band king, and his group, will be at the Latin Quarter in New York for the next month. Mel's success all started when he played a trumpet solo to "At the Jazz Band Ball," in a Buchtel assembly.

I see the Joyce Oldham television show is being changed from Friday night to Tuesday. Her guest star next week will be that talented dancer, Mitzi Bukovey.

Here on the Woman's Page I see where Judy Liggett, leading fashion designer of Paris, has just revealed a new dress that is a wow. Judy, you know, was the advocater of the 24-inch hemline back in '54.

Karin Pragan's new movie, "Water World," is coming to Akron next week. Old timers say that she displays more skill than did Esther Williams in their day.

Carol Kucheman and Lois Werner have just returned from their ranch in Arizona where Carol participated in a bug rodeo. They always liked the wide open spaces — in our corridors.

Here is a picture of Patty Nemeth lunching with Miss Margaret Allen and commenting on the good old days when there were only 29 home rooms.

Airline hostesses Anita Fichtner and Patsy Copping were given a medal of courage recently, signifying bravery and indefatigability in the face of danger. These two girls were the heroines in that big plane crash last week. Those girls always had a lot of nerve.

Turning to the sport's page I see where the Goodyear Wingfoots won their championship game last night paced by their captain, Dave Wood. Andy Preston sharpened pencils for scorekeeper Denny Thompson.

Buchtel High girls will put on a tumbling demonstration at the school gym tomorrow night at 7 P.M. The program is being directed by the gym teacher, Miss Marilyn Martin. Bud deBruin's twin daughters are deMaine attraction.

Al Spencer has just signed a new contract with the Yankees. Rumor has it his salary will be over $50,000,000.

Jack "Hurdles" Hirsch, that outstanding halfback and track star, has just been named head football coach at Ohio State. Curt Mairs, another of our old friends, will be his assistant. I guess old Woody just doesn't have it any more.

Joe Levy, nationally famous for coming in last in more golf tournaments than anyone else, finally broke 100 yesterday (for nine holes, that is).

Wow, look at that model of a new car just on the market. It's called the Godardete, after its famous designer, Port Godard. It's really a beaut! What lines!

Howard's Pharmacy and Novelty is now under the management of Bob Koons.

Coming to the ad section, I see where Carole Harman, world's speediest stenographer, has just opened a new business school here in Akron. I believe it is next door to Renee Kinzer's School of Languages.

In the personal ad column I see this ad: "Wanted, one female companion to laugh at my jokes." Mike O'Brien.

Jay Gaines Insurance Agency is having a grand opening of its new offices all next week. Emory Smith, star salesman, just sold a billion dollar policy to Dave Poole, the Domino Champion of '74.

Just to spot a few of the ads—

The Dours-Mercer Veterinary Hospital, featuring those two great X-ray technicians, Judy Dawson and Jean Endres.

The Holman Construction Company is low bidder for the new annex.

Weller's Butcher Shop advertises choice ingredients for Sloppy Joes.

Henry Munford's pilot lessons and free rides to all prospective students.

Dick Rea is taking over Dr. Lefton's dental offices downtown.

It's been a pleasure to read about the success of my old classmates. Now it's time for me, Home Economics Major, to go bake a cake for my dear friend, Vince, who is celebrating his 39th birthday — again?

'50-'51

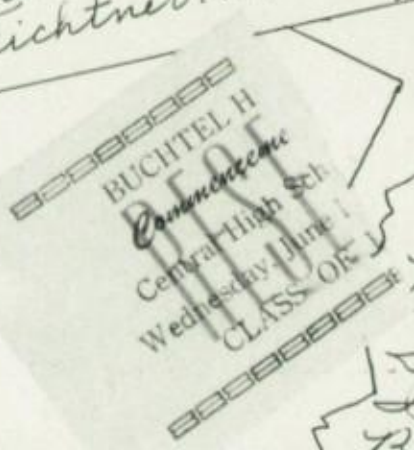
Dear Diary,

Today was my first day at Buchtel!! I was so scared that I couldn't even open my locker and I was late for Home Room. I bought an elevator pass and when I ate my first Sloppy Joe, Wow!! ..... Last night I went to the football game with a bunch of kids & met at the Freshie mixer. We won and am I hoarse..... My first big dance was the Homecoming Dance. The Freshies on the court were Nancy Green and Pat de Maine... Student Council elections were today and Dick Rea + Nancy Green are the Freshman representatives.... The kids I voted for for the King B and May Court made it!! ... Dick Rea + Bill Lewis... Pat de Maine + Anita Trichtner... Hooray - I'm a Sophomore

'51-'52

Dear Diary,

Oh, boy! is it ever fun to tease the Freshies... We all stay in the stands at half-time, now that Jean Gravesmill is head majorette... We finally asked me to the Homecoming Dance + I had a marvelous time. Nancy Green + Pat de Maine, our attendants, looked darling.... We elected four members to Student Council today - Betty Brock, Pat de Maine, Tom Smith + Martin Tischer... I bought a new outfit for the King B Dance + I was really glad that Dick + Bill were on the court again. ...Last night was the May Dance; the attendants were Betty Brock + Anita Trichtner... At last I'm an upper classman! Mary



Dear Diary,

Now that I have a legal driver's license I can drive to Garners' & the open houses... I wasn't in the stands to see Jane Weaver get crowned Homecoming Queen or the junior attendants, Betty Brock, Jean Gravesmill & Jean Endres, because I really made the football team & had to stay in the locker room... I flicked school yesterday when they elected Dick Rea, Tom Smith, Jean Gravesmill, and Pat de Maine for Student Council... In homeroom we voted for class officers - Dick Rea, pres.; Bill Boss v.p.; Frank Burgess & Pat de Maine, treas.; & Jean Endres, secy.... I gave my new class ring to her after the King B dance. The knights were: Bill Boss & Dick Rea... Anita Fruchtner & Myrna Lemley are on the May Court... I flunked my physics exam but I got through anyway ... And now !! I am a Senior.

'52 - '53

Dear Diary, '53-'54

Back to the old grind for the last time (?) No freshies, lots of noise, new kids, committee meetings & completed riot... our class officers Bill Boss, Jon Mercer, Jean Endres, & Susan Wolff, conducted our senior meeting in Caf. A today... Dick Rea is Pres. of Student Council & the others are Betty Brock, Bill Boss, Bud de Bruin, Susan Wolff, Bob Daily, & Nancy Sparhawk... The fire during lunch period was a minor one, fortunately (?)... After the Homecoming game where Betty Brock, Myrna Lemly, Jane Weaver, & Jean Endres were honored, we went to Mr. Skillets... Don't have time to write tonite so just a note - Dick Rea was King B & Carol Collins was May Queen. Dick's court was: Doylan Forney, Bill Lewis, Tom Smith, Dick Waller, & Bill Boss. Carol's court was: Myrna Lemley, Jane Weaver, Betty Brock, Jean Endres, Pat de Maine, Jean Gravesmill, & Susan Wolff. Am I beat! I was out all night after the prom. I'll never recover in time for graduation... I'm really sorry to leave John

In Memoriam

As we try to write a memoriam for Leonard Niewiadomski, we can't help thinking he wouldn't have wanted a serious memoriam. Sadness was not a part of Lenny. Happiness and laughter were his very life. In sixteen years Lenny wrote his own memoriam — the way he would have liked it written now. It is written in our precious memories of his happy-go-lucky ways, so simply shown by the gay music of his whistling in the halls, and the laughter of his many friends gathered around him.

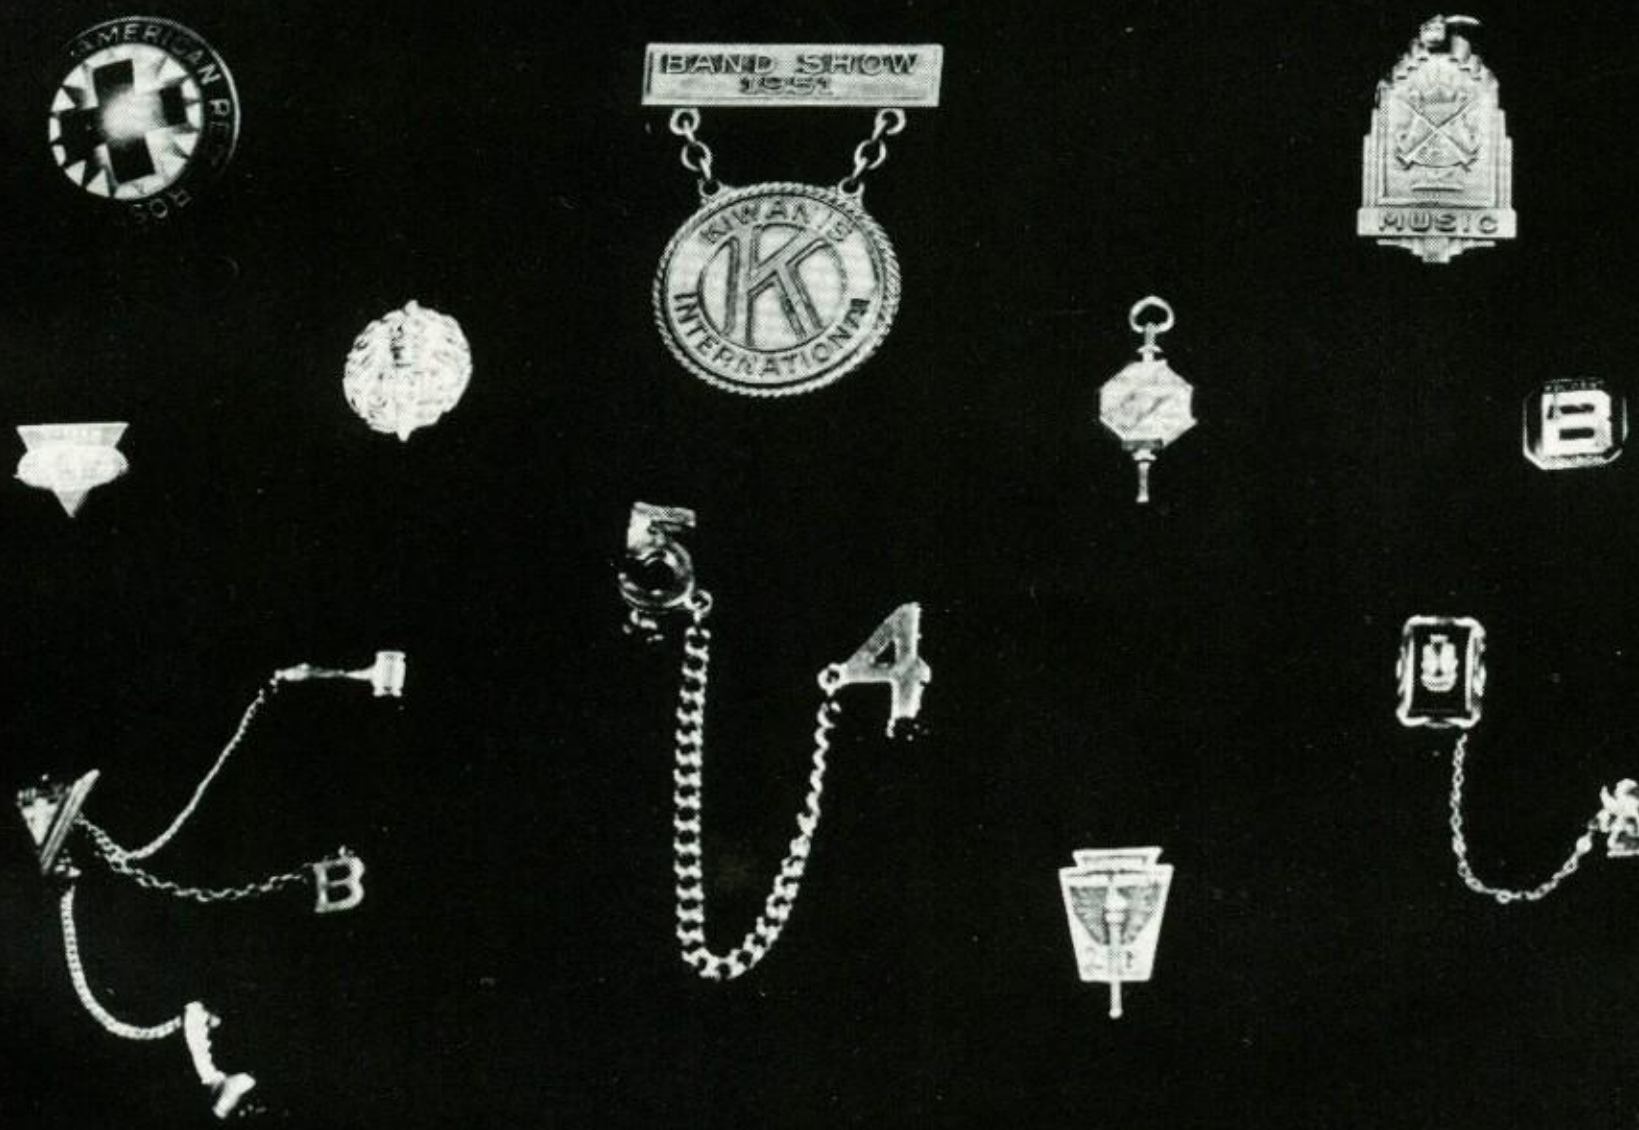
His friendly smile; his winning ways,
Will keep him with us — always.

His quiet, steady, even pace,
In our hearts had gained a place.

Michael Hanigofsky, better known to most of us as "Mike," will long be remembered by those who knew him well for his friendly smile and quiet, easy going nature. No one can forget his keen sense of humor. Even though his life with us was cut short, he accomplished many things that some men never do in their full life span.

Mike will long be remembered for his leadership in the Catholic Youth Organization and by Schumacher and Buchtel friends for his athletic ability. Truly, he will be an inspiration for our youth of tomorrow.

"We gain in service"



Student Council

Student Council, under the guidance of Mr. L. O. Weiss, has been sensitive to student needs. New ideas this year were the Sock Hop, pencil dispensers, and Buchtel caps. Its main project was sponsoring the May Dance.

Homeroom Representatives

The second year of organization has been a busy one for the Homeroom Representatives. Dick Waller was their president and Pat Nemeth, secretary. Among their projects were the Homecoming Dance, auto registration, and the paper sale.

Senior Class Officers

Secretary, Jean Endres, checks her notebook while Vice President, Jon Mercer, President, Bill Boss, and treasurer, Susan Wolff, look on.

Junior Class Officers

Important in Buchtel's program for Student Government are the officers of the Class of '55. Secretary, Mary Cockill, and President, Dave MacDonald, read the minutes while Treasurer, Judy Wertz, and Vice President, Larry Weber, watch.

Mr. Schneyer is chairman and Wilma Evans is secretary of the activities committee. Its job is to decide school policy and schedule events so that they won't conflict with one another. This year some of their problems have been: parking lot rearrangement, exams, graduation expenses, and whether or not to increase their membership.

A bigger and better yearbook meant more ads and patrons for the Griffin. Responsible for the tremendous campaign this year were Steve Subrin, Pat Nickels, and George Carter, who used posters, class meetings, and a memorable recording, "Drag-In," to excite the class spirit needed to sell the ads.

G R I F F I N

Beside the specialized jobs of layout and ad managing there are a million smaller tasks just as important to the success of the Griffin. Nancy Lyons, Nancy Saum, and Madge Lilley acted as typists, copy writers and reporters. Standing are Denny Thompson, sports editor, with his assistants, Bob Weiner and Andy Preston. With her ledger is Nancy Hundley, our financial expert. Holding a stencil is Nancy Wyle, our mimeograph expert. Special recognition goes to Pat Wilder, whose artistic skill in originality and arrangement produced some of the outstanding pages in your '54 Griffin.

Your '54 Griffin was edited by Anne Smith, whose ambition and initiative coupled with Mr. Friedman's capable guidance enabled us to meet the challenge of finances, deadlines, and miscellaneous crises. Joe LaCamera's duties as trouble-shooter included arranging for pictures, making announcements, and commuting to Carpenter's.

The top secret of the Senior Year was the Class Ballot. The three privileged individuals who tabulated votes were our two junior staff members, Eddie Rose and Sybil Foley with senior, Myrna Kallick (center).

Thank-you's from the committee go to everyone who sold an ad or patron, to Mr. Friedman, our advisor, whose influence and suggestions were indispensable, to Mr. Schneyer for his assistance and co-operation, to Dick Rea who gave us a much needed boost during the big campaign and to all the homeroom ad managers.

Our thanks also go to Mr. John Trippe, the Griffin co-ordinator, who has contributed his skill and knowledge of year book publications. The photography in this year book verifies the splendid co-operation we received from Carpenter's Studio.

Buchtel's affiliation with the YWCA is through our two Y-Teen clubs. Sponsoring and planning dances has been the main program this year. An induction service was held in the gym during the fall, from left to right: Jean Gravesmill, Madge Lilley, Pat Wilder, Joan Wirth, Pat deMaine, Carol Collins, Carole Harmon, and Nancy Green.

Planning a future meeting are the officers: Sandy Irvine, Carol Collins, Pat deMaine, President, Pat Roney, and Joan Wirth.

Leading the Junior Y-Teens this year was Janet Booth, assisted by Cynthia Roysdon, Paula Valentine, Carol Messerly, Joan Englehardt, and Lynn Humiston.

Planning one of the many projects of the year are Carol O'Hara, Marilyn Burrell, Sue Fraser, Kay Dress, and Paula Korman.

Senior Comwolei

One of the annual projects of Comwolei is to sell Friendship Day booklets. The art department makes the booklets and it is Comwolei's job to sell them to the student body. Pictured selling the booklets are: Barbara Sauvery, Jean Alspach, Pat Bell, and Marcia Hagen.

Junior Comwolei

Officers of Junior Comwolei this past year were: Elyssa Lindner, Cathy Cox, Pat Perkins, and Carol MacManus. The club was under the sponsorship of Mrs. Starks.

Buchtel's beautiful Hi-Y Queen, Myrna Lemley, was also honored as All-City Queen.

Hi:Y

Sec'y, Wes Pickering, Bob Daily, Heath Valentine, and Treas. Jay Gleenor, clean their lockers, one of Hi-Y's many projects. Jim Lockard plays the trumpet while V.P. Jerry Young, and Chaplain Jim Horn, read for an Armistice Day program.

Below: Bob Koons, Pres. John Naum, and Dick Milford display Hi-Y bookcovers.

Talon

A few days after the copy is taken to the printers, the galley sheets are returned and proofread, cut out, and pasted onto the dummy sheets as Dorothy Perunko, typist, John Naum, business manager, Nancy Deem, page two, Louis Gergis, page four, and Steve Subrin, page three, are doing. The four page models will be taken to the printers, along with the proofread sheets to be printed and finally issued to faculty and students.

Approximately once a month, the Talon staff with their advisors, Mr. Charles Schifano and Miss Anna Simpson, publish a newspaper. Assignments are made and turned in and then the copy is corrected and typed as illustrated by Tom Smith, page four, George Carter, ad manager, Judy Dawson, page three, Editor Nancy Lyons, Stan Marks, photographer, and Joan Leibowitz, page three.

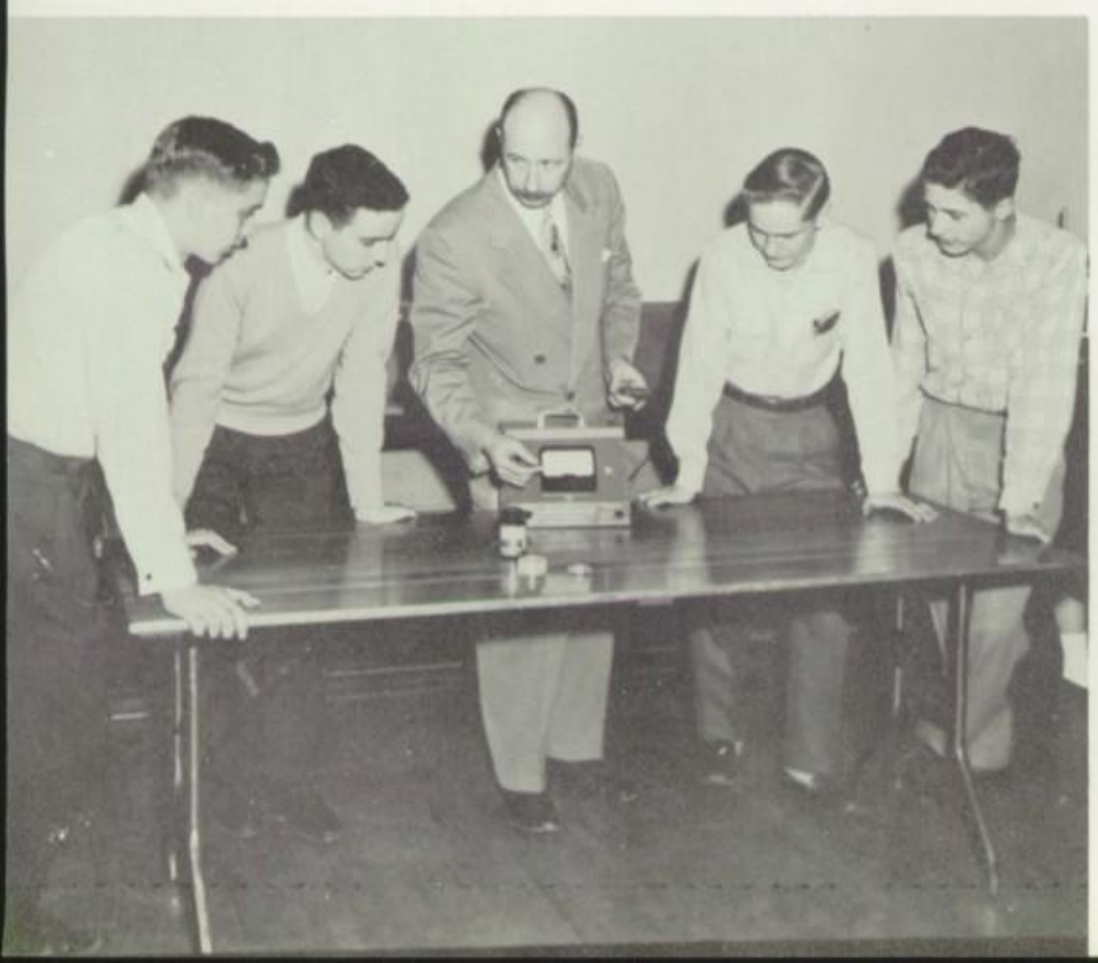
Pictured below is Betsy Evans, Buchtel junior, who was one of the four national winners in the United States "I Speak for Democracy Contest." In addition to the trophy, she won $850 in scholarships, a trip to Washington, D.C., and was featured twice on "The Firestone Hour," a national television program.

Chemistry Club

One of Buchtel's most active clubs this year has been the Chemistry Club under the leadership of President Tom Smith and Vice-President, Marcia Hagen. As treasurer, Myrna Lemley has taken care of the club's finances while Patty Bell has kept the minutes for each meeting. Their sponsor and advisor is Mr. Howard Reeves, Buchtel's Chemistry teacher.

The programs for the Chemistry Club this year have included discussions with guest speakers, Dr. Friend and Dr. Sumner, and a trip to an iron and steel mill in Cleveland. Here Joe Levey, Burt Woodring, and Denny Thompson watch Nancy Saum as she helps Bob Weiner and Bob Wagner with one of the club's experiments.



Physics Club

Two science clubs meet on alternate Thursdays here at B.H.S. and the Physics Club has had its share of activity this year. Two members, Ted Pfleuger and Jim Jolly, have formed a radio group to demonstrate amateur radio hook-ups. Junior, Wes Pickering is President of Physics Club while Bob Street is Vice-President, Betsy Evans, secretary, and Ray Federman, treasurer. At left, Mr. Baker explains to Bruce Gehman, Bob Butts, Dick Gunther, and Dick Huffman the operation of a Geiger Counter.

Politiclub

One of Buchtel's newest clubs, Politiclub, under the sponsorship of Mr. Leon Friedman, has been privileged to have several distinguished guest speakers this year including Mr. Myer Wise, Mr. T. P. Riddle, Dr. Mabel Riedinger, and Representative W. H. Ayres. Here Rep. Ayres talks with Pres. John Roush, Martin Fischer, Steve Subrin, Ben Au, and Dorothy Price.

Reading the newspapers is an important duty of every Politiclub member for it enables them to discuss current events and to question their guests intelligently. Here Bob Stone and Dick Dobrow peek over the shoulders of Rochelle Dienoff, John Roush, Dorothy Price, and Sybil Ekus.

Latin Club

Secretary Wynne Levey, President Bob Sholiton, and Treasurer Judy Katz study a Roman scroll, one of the many fascinating projects found in Room 223, where the Latin club meets.

Humorous plays and skits, a classic Roman Banquet, and a showing of the miniature collection belonging to Miss Helen Pfahl, their sponsor, have enlivened the programs of the Latin Club this year. Here Eleanor Kuykendall, Melvin Mermelstein, Carol Carpenter, and Bub Cunningham discuss several replicas of ancient Roman garments, boats, and weapons.

Art Club

One of the most interesting spots in the building is our art room, where projects in clay, paints and chalk adorn the walls and shelves. It is here that the Art Club meets every other Thursday night. Bob Chernick, Virginia Riley, Brad Smith, Valerie Hall, and Marcia Goldstein put the final touches on Virginia's project.

Dramatic Club

Here we see four members of the club leaving for an expedition to Kent where they attended a dramatic workshop. Left to right are Sylvia Cortel, Jo Ann Kaufman, Lila Bonar, and Margo Boyle.

Barbara Boswick and Barbara O'Conner are the girls who dip into the freezer for your ice cream. Sue McCracken and Patty Nemeth are the cashiers who ring up your bill.

Hall Guards

Buchtel's mighty force of hall guards under the advisorship of Mr. Harry Schaller, represents the law and order in the halls, alcoves and lunchlines; preventing wandering or mischief.

Police Boys

Mr. Tucker's police boys who guide you past the chuck-holes, Buchtel drivers, and other hazards are Walter Brown, Tom Weller, and David Lowe.

Electricians

When the microphones, P.A. system, or any electrical equipment around the building happen to go on strike, it is Ben Au and Fred Holman to the rescue. The boys are shown here at the master control panel in the office.

Visual Aids

Burt Woodring operates the movie projector while Jim Lockhard, John Thackeray, and Jim Kinney look on. These boys work with their sponsor, Mr. Charles Kinney.

Band

Buchtel's eighty-two piece marching band has enjoyed a successful year. Under the leadership of Mr. Yanculeff, they performed at all of our football games, gave concerts at Buchtel, West, and Perkins, and played at the dedication of the Cedar Street Bridge. The officers were Jim Galloway, pres.; Dave Woodard, vice-pres.; Merle Lemley, secy.; and Bob Brown, treas.

STRING QUARTET

Buchtel's string quartet consisting of Bob Houriet, Dean Milo, Elyssa Lindner, and Katsinari Toyodo, won second prize in district six in Ohio and has performed over radio station WHKK.

Though a relative newcomer to the music ranks, the Eight Notes have already won city and countywide acclaim. They were featured as a solo attraction at the Akron Music Festival" and they have appeared several times at the Mayflower Hotel and the Akron City Club. Included in their recognition is the first place certificate from the all-county T.B. Association's talent contest.

The 1953 Football Season proved to be an outstanding display of excitement and thrills. Buchtel was a contender for the city championship throughout the season. The highlights were the homecoming victory over Central, the smashing victory over North, and the game with St. Vincents in which Buchtel came within one point of spoiling the city's only undefeated record. Dick Rea, Dave Nelander, and Curt Mairs were honored with first string berths on the Beacon Journal's All-City Team. This year's team did a wonderful job and we wish next year's team a very successful season.

Playing through a 16-game schedule, the Griffin basketball team accumulated a record of 8 victories and 8 defeats. Throughout the season, the team showed courage and spirit. This was clearly exemplified when, after a slow start, the Griffs came back at the end of the season to defeat several teams in a row, including South, the city's co-champion. Although plagued by injuries, the team played the fine brand of ball which has been traditional at Buchtel. We think the student body owes the team and Coach Porosky a vote of thanks for a very exciting season.

As this Griffin goes to press, Buchtel's baseball season is just beginning. The team got off to a fast start, opening with victories over St. Marys, 4-0, North, 11-8, and Hower, 7-1. The boys who have led the team to these victories are pitchers, Spencer, Nelander, and deBruin, infielders, Drews, Willis, Miller, and Poulos, and outfielders, Lewis, Allen, Petrovich, and Gerpheide. Our Cross Country team had one of the most successful seasons in their history. Sparked by Ed Miller, the city and district's individual champion, they swept to seven consecutive victories including the city and district meets. Ed Miller, Ron Karg, Ray Miller, Jack Juhasz, Dick Huffman, Bruce Gehman, and Jon Hillegas represented Buchtel in the state meet at Columbus. With several lettermen returning next year, the prospect for the future is very bright.

As the school year draws to a close, one of the most prominent sports at Buchtel becomes track. Coach Blateric, in his first season as head coach, is faced with the problem of having no home field on which to practice. As a result, the squad must split up into sections and practice at different points all over West Hill. Standout performers this year should be Ed Miller and Ron Karg in the distance events, Bob Paddy in the pole vault, Mickey McDanield and Dave McDonald in the shot put, Richard Hicks in the high jump, and Howard Wellock in the hurdle events.

Swimming

Our swimming team was successful once again this season as they won second place in the district and eighth place in the state. Through the efforts of Coach Schifano and the team of Fred Corns, Joe Kodish, Fred Keller, Tim Post, and underclassmen Ed Slater, Jon Roush, Bob Kenny, Evan Corns, and George McCamont, the Griffs had a season of which the school can be proud. We would like to thank the team for their excellent work in upholding Buchtel's tradition of fine swimming teams.

SPRING

SPORTS

H-O-W-D-Y

Cheering our teams on to victory this year was our peppy squad composed of Judy Wertz, Bev Kirk, Jean Endres, Sally Nathan, Pat Roney, and Margerie Nimmer. Especially known for their original lyrics and singing harmony are Betty Ann Brock and Sue Wolff, Buchtel's most musical co-captains.

The girls' new cheers, new steps and attractive uniforms helped them create the spirited atmosphere found at all our games.

Buchtel Strutters

The 1954 majorettes, led by Jean Gravesmill for the third consecutive year, were Merle Lemley, Nancy Sparhawk, Cynthia Bausher, Annette Schick, and Wanda Cogswell. They had the opportunity of presenting their unique dance routines at a number of band concerts. Besides leading our band on the football field, the honor of marching at Derby Downs and leading the parade at the opening of the Cedar Street Bridge was given them.
